The Austrian Government has decided to proceed with the construction of a canal connecting the Danube, Moldau and Elbe rivers. The chief cities of Austria and Bohemia have offered one aggregate subvention of 12,000,000 florins to construct a canal which will link the Danube, Moldau, Elbe, Oder and Vistula rivers, and the project is being seriously considered.

TWO HUNDRED WELL-ARMED COLOMBIANS LAND TO AID THE CUBAN REBELS-MORE TROOPS

ARRIVE FROM SPAIN-PLANTERS KID-NAPPED BY INSURGENTS. Santiago de Cuba, July 5, via Key West, July 13. On July 1 a column of eighty guerrilleros left Manzanillo commanded by a captain and two lieutenants. When they arrived at Cayo Largo they met a band of 600 insurgents under General Amador Guerra, who ordered the first five guerrilleros whom he met to surrender, but they, firing together, wounded Guerra in the abdomen, from which wound he died the following day. They also wounded his second lieutenant and two others. wounded his second neutralized the soldiers with machetes, causing great disorder, and the two lieutenants fled, leaving the soldiers alone. The insurgents killed twenty-five soldiers and wounded more than fifty. Others fied in great confusion. The fight was a desperate and terrible one.

On June 29 a large expedition from South Amer-

A French subject arrived here yesterday from Guantanamo and complained to his Consul of the bad treatment he had received on his plantation at the hands of a small party of Spanish troops, saying that they knocked him down and cut his neck with a sword. Manuel Freiere and Euseblo Mercane, partners of the country place, Cabonico, in Gibara District, have been kidnapped, it is asserted, by order of Antonio Maceo, who is holding them until they give 22.000 for the revolution. The other partner, living in Havana, it is said, has gone to Gibara with $10.000 to see if they may be released for that sum. The Spaniards yesterday afternoon brought 2000 soldiers from Sengo and stationed them in and around Boniato, on the American Railroad, about six miles from this city.

CUBAN LEADERS AT BREAKFAST.

"EL PAIS," A MADRID PAPER, ATTACKS THE GOVERNMENT FOR WITHHOLDING INFORMA-

TION ABOUT CAMPOS'S OPERATIONS. The Cuban leaders in tals city were entertained at an elaborate breakfast yesterday morning by Enrique Trujillo, Editor of the Cuban paper, "El Parvenir," at his home No. 236 West Thirty-ninth-st. The guest of honor was Sefior Palma, the newly elected Cuban delegate. Others present were General Rafael Quesada, Benjamin Gurra, reasurer of the Cuban Revolutionary Society; Carlos Manuel de Céspedes, a son of the first President of Cuba; Gonzalo de y Quesada, secretary of the Cuban Revolutionary Society; Mrs. José Marti, widow of the Cuban patriot, and others. It was en

Señor Palma, who has been at the Hotel America, in Irving Place, returned to his home in Central Valley yesterday. He has gone to stay only over Sunday, and will return Monday morning to take up his duties again. He will spend the most of his time in New-York from now until such a time as Spain admits the independence of Cuba, or the in-surgents admit themselves defeated.

Senor Palma is not willing to talk about Cuban affairs. He believes in a diplomatic policy of silence. A Cuban patriot yesterday gave a Tribune reporter a clipping from the Spanish newspaper "El Pais." published at Madrid. The paper is the organ of the Conservative party in Cuba. The patriot Patriotism, according to the Ministerial custom, means concealing from the country the gravity of the events now developing in the Great Antilia.

Since the disembarkation of the brave general, things have been going from bad to worse. HANDS OFF, CRY THE ORANGEMEN. THEY DENOUNCE THE DOMINION GOVERNMENT FOR ITS ATTITUDE ON THE MANITOBA

SCHOOL QUESTION. Victoria, B. C., July 13.-The largest demonstration of Orangemen ever seen in this province was held here yesterday, lodges and A. P. A. organizations from the American side helping to swell the ranks of the procession, in which the "little red schoolhouse" was a prominent feature. Speeches at Caledonia Grounds were made by Grand Master Sparling and other prominent Orangemen, including several clergymen, all of which were in reference to the Manitoba school question. They all denounced the Dominion Government for the stand it has taken and urged Manitoba to stand firm against the separate school system, as a scheme of the Roman Catholics to split the Protestant deominations and so gain the ascendancy.

Resolutions were passed, amid cheers, approving the stand taken by Dalton McCarthy, condemning all language detrimental to the development of the Dominion, and stating that Orangemen will support at the elections only men who publicly declare themselves willing to work for the abolition of State-aided sectarian schools and French as the official language. A resolution was also passed thanking God that the Radical Party in Great Britain had been driven from power and so de-feated Home Rule for Ireland, and expressing a determination to aid the Orangemen of the mother land in maintaining the Union. Copies of the resolution will be sent to Lord Salisbury, Messrs. Balfour and Chamberlain and the Impérial Grand Master, the Earl of Erin. The proceedings were orderly and nothing occurred to mar the general harmony.

Toronto, Ont., July 13 .- In all the speeches made by leading Orangemen at meetings of the various lodges throughout Ontario last night, strong language was used regarding the Government's pledge to pass remedial legislation in connection with the Manitoba schools. Sir Mackenzie Bowell and his Government were warned that if they attempted to coerce Manitoba the result would be fatal to the Government and disastrous to confederation. The speakers said that their rallying cry must be "Hands off Manitoba."

EIFFEL'S NAME ON THE LEGION OF HONOR.

ITS RETENTION THERE LEADS TO ACTION BY THE CHAMBER OF DEPUTIES.

Paris, July 13 .- In the Chamber of Deputies to-day M. Pourquery de Bolsserin, Radical Republican, member for Avignon, Vaucluse, interpellated the Government in regard to the Council of the Legion of Honor. He expressed regret that the Council had taken such small account of the decisions of the courts of justice in reference to the Panama Canal swindles as to allow the name of M. Elffel to remain upon the roll of members, and called upon the Government to introduce a bill for the reorganization of the Council. The motion was adopted by a vote of 438 to 2.

The Council of the Legion of Honor is presided over by General Fevrier, who was raised to that rank after he had contributed to the fall of Gen-eral Boulanger. At the time of the Panama scandals, some of the men convicted of participating in them, like Dr. Cornellus Herz, and others who already had the ribbon of the Legion of Honor, were deprived of their membership. M. Eiffel was more lucky, for the Council decided that, though he had been convicted also of having unduly earned many been convicted also of having unduly earned many millions in the Panama affair, that was a mere business transaction, and did not impeach his honor. He was, therefore, retained in the membership of the order. Public opinion protested through many newspapers and in meetings against that decision, and that protest has been echoed by the Chamber. The vote was nearly unanimous, for there are 584 Deputies in the Chamber, and 438 of them against only two were in favor of the motion of M. Pourquery de Boisserin, who is not a Radical, as said in the dispatch, but rather a moderate Republican, who has been often attacked by the Radical Saciliate organs. There were 18 Deputies who did Socialist organs. There were 144 Deputies who did not vote, some of them absent from the Chamber, but 164 may have abstained purposely from voting. That is exactly the number of those who were said at the time of the Panama scandals to figure upon the yet unpublished list of politicians bribed by Reinach, Herz and Arton.

CATHEDRAL MISSION-GREAT RESPECT IN

WHICH HE IS HELD THERE If it is true that people leave their homes during vacation time and live in smaller places, with which they are less familiar and where they have less comfort than in their own homes, not because they prefer them to their native places but because they want an absolute change, then Bishop Potter made a good selection when he exchanged his Washington Square home for No. 130 Stanton-st. made a good selection when he exchanged his Washington Square home for No. 130 Stanton-st. It would be hard to imagine a more complete change in fact. The Bishop might have found places in Europe nearly like the one which he selected for his summer vacation: in truth, the densely populated part of the city where the Cathedrai Mission stands resembles in many respects the Judenstadt of Prague and the oid part of Odessa.

The mission is in a part of the city of which many of The Tribune readers probable know little or nothing. It is traversed by public conveyances which few of the residents of the upper city have ever seen, and the streets are less familiar to them than many an avenue which lies on the other side of the occan. Its signs are written in characters unknown to them. It has its circulating libraries, which contain only books written with Hebrew characters to express phonetically bad German. It has six daily papers printed in Hebrew characters, and a large Russian population. In addition to these two classes, there is a small sprinkling of Germans. In the midst of this district, where tenement-

SOMETHING ABOUT THE MISSION.

The house is part of the great Cathedral scheme, and is the centre of a number of charities to which and is the centre of a number of charites to when the clerkymen in charge devotes his time and attention. "The Rev. Francis R. Bateman is away on his vacation, and some one must attend to his duties, so I have come here, and I simply do for Mr. Hateman what he would do for me if it were in his power." These were the words of Rishop Potter thanks for the flowers which they carried away. There will be another distribution of flowers by the society next Saturday. when he spoke of becoming a resident of Stanton st. "There is nothing in it." he says. "There are so many clergymen who prefer Europe the seashore or the mountains to the poor East Side during vacation," said a Stanton-st. citizen, "and so few who make an effort to become per-sonally acquainted with this end of the city, that Bishop Potter's step is worthy of praise, and it is sure to do good." connected with the mission is a young men's club, which meets at No. 153 Essex-st. every Wednesday. This club is an offshoot from the Young Men's Bible Class, of which A. J. Clapp is the Header. Then there are the Girls' Friendly, the Working Girls' Club and the King's Daughters circles, which all meet at the Community-house in Essex-st. There is also the dispensary, at which Dr. Bartlett attends three times a week. To all of these departments, as well as to the religious services in the mission-house, the Bishop gives his personal attention, besides receiving visitors during two hours every morning and two hours in the

During the winter there are other branches of the mission in operation which are now closed for the season. Among these are the Kindergarten, of which Miss M. E. Perdue has charge; the Kitchen Garden, under the direction of Mrs. W. C. Casey; the Helping Hand, a sewing circle which is or ganized to assist worthy people without pauperizing them, and of which Mrs. Frederick W. Vanderbilt is the president and Miss M. C. Faulhaber the Bible reader. During the fall and winter there are also weekly mothers' meetings in the mission, at which Mrs. H. H. Pifard presides, and a Saturday morning sewing-school, presided over by Mrs. Richard Irvin. Connected with the mission is also a company of boys known as the Cathedral Cadets, who receive military instruction from Captain W C. Casey. These are all parts of the mission and need the attention of the minister in charge.

THE BISHOP'S APARTMENTS. The Bishop's apartments are small and plain, but comfortable, much more so than those of an army officer in camp. He sleeps in a small room near his study, has his breakfast at 7 a. m. and at 8 o'clock long before that time. These consist of professional mendicants, worthy poor, heads of charity organiza tions, friends who come to congratulate the Bishop on his good work, and curious East Siders, who want to see how a Bishop looks.

After 10 a. m. the Bishop makes calls in the neigh borhood, possibly investigates some of the charity cases, calls on the sick and does such work—to use his own words-"as the priest of a parish should

"DOROTHY" AT LAKE GEORGE.

GREAT PREPARATIONS BEING MADE FOR GORGEOUS OUTDOOR PERFORMANCE.

Lake George, July 13 (Special).-Preparations for the performance of "Dorothy" at the Lake House, Lake George, on the nights of Wednesday and Thursday, July 31 and August 1, are going on swimmingly. The lawn of the Lake House, which forms an amphitheatre, will be turned into a perfect fatry bower. Little electric lamps will be festooned through the trees. The stage fronting the lake will represent a natural terrace, backed, by hop-poles, trees and flowers. A thousand electric lights wil trees and flowers. A thousand electric lights will be scattered among the grounds and stage, and the result will be a scene that will be memorable. Manager Leslie is rehearsing the company in New-York, and reports enthusiastically upon the results of the rehearsals. Special trains will be run to accommodate the out-of-town people who wish to attend, and will return at midnight after the performance. Large parties are being organized in Albany, Troy, Saratoga, Fort Edward, Sandy Hill and Glens Falls, and a representative audience from these towns will be in attendance.

A "FAKE" PROMPTLY DENIRD.

Detroit, July 13.-There is no truth in the report sent out by the Chicago Associated Press to-day to the effect that the Western Union Telegraph Company's operators at stations on the Michigan Central Railroad had sent in word this morning that the stations were burning and that they have to desert their instruments. The chief opera-tor at the Western Union office in this city says that there is no trouble whatever along any di-vision of the Michigan Central, and that none of the operators has reported that he would be com-pelled to leave his instrument because of fire.

Allentown, Penn., July 13.-The Catasaqua Manufacturing Company to-day notified its 400 employes of an increase of 10 per cent in wages. Detroit, July 13.-The Michigan Malleable Iron Works, which employs between two hundred and three hundred men, nearly all of whom are skilled workmen, will voluntarily increase the wages of its employes 10 per cent, beginning August 1.

THE TRADE IN CHICAGO.

Chicago, July 13 (Special).—Wheat to-day lost just about the gain made Priday, 1½ cents a bushel. September opened at 67%, sold between 68% and 60%, and closed at 66% cents. The Northwestern crop damage claims showed no falling off, but they were not as enthusiastically received. That the Northwest did not buy any wheat here did not escape attention. Certain of the leading professionals, notably Linn and Cudahy, were free sellers. There was no improvement in the cash demand to-day, business not reaching 50,000 bushels. Cables were rather conflicting, but none of them showed any such advance as was made on this side Friday. Every one had to revise his estimate as to the visible supply. It was figured to-day that the decrease Monday would be less than 100,000 bushels. Seaboard clearances were fair, 300,000 bushels for to-day, but they were almost all of flour. The receipts everywhere were lighter even than last year, when the railroad slockade was still on.

September corn shorts had another scare, prices at one time showing an advance of 1½ cents over Friday. The close was only % cent over. September opened at 45% sold between 45% and 47%, and closed at 46% cents. September shorts keep getting out. Receipts were 202 cars; the estimate for Monday, 290 cars. Charters were for 228,000 bushels. Stock here Monday will show a large decrease—over a million bushels.

Oats were 464 cars: the estimate for Monday, 200 cars. Charters were reported for 75,000 bushels. Prices are easily affected by corn.

Provisions opened firm on small hog receipts, 4,000 this morning, and 20,000 estimated for Monday. They did not hold, though, it taking little selling by Cudahy and some of the commission houses to break prices to almost the low point. September pork sold at $40 conts.

GOLFING IN THE RAIN.

PLUCKY PLAY ON THE ST. ANDREW'S LINKS.

THE RAD WEATHER PREVENTED GOOD SCORES W. E. HODGMAN WINNER OF THE TOURNA-

MENT-SCORES OF OTHER PLAYERS. St. Andrew's golfers had another chance to prove their pluck on their links near Yonkers yesterday by playing half of the third monthly handicap in the rain and the other half on ground so wet that the rain and the other half on ground so wet that the course was covered with pools of water. Clouds were gathering fast when the game was called, at 2:30 p. m., and before most of the starters had fin-ished four or five holes there came a flerce down-pour of rain and hall. This drove several to the tent near the first tee. Here their numbers were gradually increased, as those who had stayed out the first round came straggling in. Every new arrival was greeted with a shout of laughter, justified, perhaps, by his appearance, and an invariable inquiry as to whether or not he was wet.

After waiting until the skles gave some evidence of clearing, the second round was begun, but the ground was so soft that good golf was out of the question. The principal difficulty lay in making the long drives and the approach shots, which could not be calculated as usual. Strong putting was required on all the greens, which were very "slow," to use the proper golfing term.

G. E. Armstrong succeeded in covering most of the first half before the shower, and his score for the nine holes was 45. This is considered re-markably good for the links, few amateurs having made it in less. His work was steady, averag-ing about four shots for most of the holes. Even the seventh, which usually requires six or seven he made in five. His second round, however, de-stroyed all the advantage gained in the first, for he used 62 strokes in making it. Henry W. record, 49 and 68, was similarly disproportionate. Mr. Taft raised an interesting point in regard to the numerous pools into which it was his misfortune to drive. He claims that they come prop-erly under the head of temporary hazards, and as such do not occasion a player to lose a stroke if he encounters them. Tucker, the St. Andrew's in-structor, is inclined to support this ruling, but it was not in force yesterday.

W. E. Hodgman, the winner of the tournament, made each round in 51 strokes, sometimes repeat-ing almost exactly his work for each hole. With his handicap of 12, his total of 102 was lowered to 90. The improvement in his play will doubtless de crease his allowance considerably in the next tour-nament. Dr. Henry Moffat, who finished second. improved in his play in the second round, and had reached the eighth hole in 43 when bad luck overtook him and forced him to use eight shots to make the ninth. A. L. Livermore and D. G. Henderson, scratch men, scored 102 and 103, respectively, the conditions preventing either from playing in his best form. The scores:

JUBILEE HAD NO SECRET TRIAL. Boston, July 13.—General Paine says there is no foundation for the report published yesterday that the Jubilee had been out on a secret trial trip. His son was in the South and had not even seen the boat under sail this season. General Paine did go out for a short sail on Wednesday afternoon. The out for a short sair on well-easy attention. The wind was light and no attempt was made at driv-ing the boat. For that matter, she had been out several times, but on every occasion had encoun-tered light winds, and what she would do in a hard blow remained to be seen. In regard to racing the boat this season, General Paine said that he had no idea of going to New-York for July 20 and 22; neither had he any idea of putting the Jubilee in the trial races. In fact, he is not going to New-York to race at all. In the first place, the Jubilee has the same suit of sails that she wore in the races of 1893, and she is in no condition for racing; and as for her having any speed trial, she has not even had a club topsail on her as yet this season.

ACCIDENT AT THE GREENVILLE REGATTA. The fourth annual regatta of the Greenville The victory of Mr. Brokaw's Amerita in the Larchmont Regatta on Friday is another proof of the good workmanship of Cary Smith, the designer. Among the good boats to the credit of this designer are the Yampa, the Laska, the Ariel, the Intrepid and the Iroquois. He also designed the Sound steamers the City of Lowell and the R. S. Peck. Much regret is felt in this city for the accident to the Yampa while in drydock at Southampton.

S. Nicholson Kane, of the New-York Yacht Club, will go to Newport to-morrow for the rest of the summer.

It is noticeable that two minutes will be allowed.

The courses were as follows: First class—From the starting line off the clubhouse to and around the Robbins Reef bell buoy three times, the intermediate class going twice around and the smaller boats once around. In a squall the Adele Rae's mast was carried away close to the combings, and the Maria's masthead was twisted off, while just before the finish the Colleen's throat halliards parted and she limped in with a very "baggy" mainsail. The winners were the Tempest, the Frank, which beat the Minute H. by twenty seconds; the Margie P., the Ethel and the Mollis Bawn. The management of the race was creditable to C. D. McGlehan, Dr. Hollister and D. Merry, with whom were associated as judges C. P. Morton and C. Q. Sampson.
